

Deployment Presentations & Workshops

Author and speaker Karen Pavlicin offers customized, dynamic, refreshing presentations and workshops for military families and those who support them.

Karen is known for her practicality, insight, and sense of humor. Her perspective is based on her challenging yet positive experiences during her Marine husband's many deployments and her volunteer experience working with military families.

Keynote Speaker

Military or mixed audience.
Broad range of family, deployment, grief, faith-based topics.

Customized Family Workshops

1/2 or full day
For military spouses. Customized. Preparing for deployment, reenergizing mid-deployment, groundwork for reunions. Topics range from single parenting tips to understanding combat stress.

Support Staff Training

1/2 or full day
For staff & volunteers supporting families during a deployment.
Customized to your needs.

Described by participants as:

Dynamic. Fun. Practical. Interactive. Informative. Encouraging. Inspiring. Energizing. Enlightening. Hopeful. Interesting. Meaningful. Realistic.
Just what I needed!

The event provided “encouragement and hope at a critical time and will have a major impact on the health and welfare of the Soldiers and families at Fort Drum, NY.” — Installation Command Chaplain Ted Nichols

Call 651-336-3043 for more information or to arrange an event.